Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Horrors of Slavery: In Two Parts That all men are born equally free and independent, is a principle which was assumed by the people of this country, in their contest for liberty and the rights of man. In defence of this and other principles of natural right and justice, or in resistance of what they deemed violations of their rights, the whole people of these States have thought themselves justified in appealing to arms, and in exposing their lives and property in two bloody and desolating wars. Now if the evidence of the fact were not too palpable to be overlooked or denied, would it not be thought incredible, that a people, so jealous of their natural rights, could hold in the most absolute and degrading servitude, under a free government, a million of fellow beings, who have by nature, reason and justice, as fair a claim to liberty as themselves? Could it be supposed that a people, thus jealous of their own rights, would treat their brethren of a different colour as property, to be bought and sold like oxen and horses! Yet such is the inconsistency of the white inhabitants of the United States - a people too who call themselves Christians ! To invite attention to this melancholy subject, and to excite sympathy for the suffering, is the object of this publication. The compiler firmly believes that his countrymen stand exposed to the righteous rebukes of Providence for this glaring inconsistency and inhumanity; that whether they shall be tried at the bar of reason, the bar of conscience, or the bar of God, they may justly be condemned out of their own...
