In conse IT BATHS, ETC. quence of this ignorant handling of radiant energy by irresponsible individuals the electric light bath is looked upon in many quarters with suspicion by the medical profession. There are many pathological conditions which are best treated by physical agencies of which the light bath is a potent member, but it requires a sound knowledge of their physiological action and a willingness to devote the time, energy and proper technique in their employment if good results are to be anticipated from this as from any other therapeutic agent. 1127 Commonwealth Ave. AMERICAN DOCTOR KILLED IN BEIRUT. Major Edward Kent Armstrong of Cape May, N. J., who has been engaged in relief work for the American Red Cross in the Holy Land, was instantly killed in an automobile accident at Beirut on the night of May 31st. according to a cable message received July 1st, at Red Cross Headquarters. He sus- tained a fractured skull when the car in which he was riding plunged over the side of a thirty-foot culvert. Major Armstrong, who is well known in Chicago, where he practiced medicine for a number of years, had been in Red Cross service overseas since April 1, 1918. For several months he was engaged in child welfare work in France, leaving for Palestine last January to take up similar work in that...
