THE TALESPINNERS: AN ANTHOLOGY OF COUNTRY LIFE AND HUMOR (PAPERBACK)

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.If you have ever been camping overnight you have probably spent time around a campfire telling jokes and stories to pass the time. That is the origin of this book-not campfire tales, but evening entertainment because that s all there was in the early 1900s. There were no televisions or DVDs. There was only family conversation where the interesting events of the day were related and probably embellished and most certainly used for teasing and joking. Many of these events have survived in the form of short anecdotes that live in the memories of the younger generation-like me. Here you will find: Romance We could get a sack of meal and a jug of molasses and live fat all winter. [The Proposal] Politics Philip announced that he guessed he would have to be a Democrat when he grew up, cause I can t say pudican. [How to Choose a Political Party] Adventure I think there is a crick (Hoosier for creek) just about here-re-re!! [Coon Huntin ] Suspense and drama Where s Edwin? He s down by the corn crib. What s he doing down there? Oh, he s just hangin there. [Climbing the Corn Crib] You will also find a window into the life of those who made their living from the land without benefit of modern technology and transportation-a hard but satisfying life. So pull a chair up to the stove and discover that the simple life was not always as sedate as it seems in history books.
