In accordance with the instructions of the Senate the committee now submits its report explaining the provisions of the treaties and the purpose and necessity of the amendments proposed. In order to understand thoroughly the nature of these treaties, it is necessary to review briefly what has already been accomplished in the same direction and to make clear the character of the existing treaties on this subject which are to be superseded and to point out the differences between the latter and those now before the Senate. In 1905 Mr. Hay, then Secretary of...
